

Greetings,

Please join us on Tuesday, March 27, 2018 in the East Granby High School library starting at 6:00 p.m. as East Granby Public Schools continues to address Social Emotional Learning and School Climate. This session will be presented by Althea Weber Bates. As a consultant, author, resiliency coach, motivational speaker, trainer, and a leader in the area of girls and women development of self-empowerment skills; Mrs. Bates understands the varying areas of personal development that many struggle with including fear, lack of confidence, and lack of self-esteem.

Participants will discuss and develop strategies to help their students to develop resilience and self-empowerment skills.

We look forward to seeing you there!

Dr. Christine Mahoney
Superintendent
